Is that Bill Clinton?

We, the last class of the 1900's, swept into Southbridge High still wet behind our ears. We were so unknowing, as were our advisors, Ms. Colwell and Mr. Lehner as it was their first year too. Our first task was to elect class officers and begin weekly meetings. The class wisely elected Mary, Namone, Stephen and Janet to lead us through the first year too. We were informed of the Thanksgiving celebration and immediately began working on our theme, poster, and skit. Who could ever forget the Brady Bowl. We knew after that, that singing should be kept to a minimum in our skits. We were delighted to take 3rd place for our poster. Quite an accomplishment for freshmen!

We finished our first year learning how things worked here at SHS and conducted several successful fund raisers without knowing what we needed the money for. In the spring, we designed and sold our own Spring Day T-Shirts, only to be unable to use them despite the great protest revolution precisely at 10:00 am. We finished the year by electing new class officers. We chose Butthead, Justin, Kaitlyn and Erin as our second year leaders.

Our sophomore year was to be a turning point in our time here at SHS. We were quickly becoming a class known for style and unity as we organized to celebrate Halloween and Thanksgiving. We won the first ever penny war competition. This year, we placed first in the skit competition, with a little help from the classes of 97 and 98 who were disqualified for inappropriate themes and behavior. Being held to the high standards our advisors demanded of us, we learned we could be successful, and have class. We experienced our first concession sales by selling food and drink at home basketball games, and developed and sold the very popular "En fuego" tee-shirts. In the spring, we had our first car wash and made Mr. Lehner personally responsible for the bucket and the hose! After all, who else could be entrusted? There was so much water and suds, even some of the customers got wet.

We booked Mechanics Hall for next years prom and started making plans for our junior year with the election of new class officers. Who could forget Rico being swept into office with the now infamous "Master debater" speech!

Our only sad note this year was the departure of our beloved Ms. Colwell. We sent her to Wachusett with a very sad and emotional "good bye" surprise party in room 203. We all loved her very much and knew we would miss her.

We started our Junior year under the leadership of Gordon, Butthead, Namone and Rico. Our first task was the Halloween class competition. Once again, we blew away all competitors in the penny wars with over 130 pounds of pennies. A new event this year was Hall Wars. We were assigned the office hallway and spent an entire evening decorating it to such a degree that we scared our selves. We easily won first place which set the stage for Thanksgiving. Our theme this year for the poster and skit was "the Goonies." This year our skit won first place, and we bought the most feathers thus making our sole advisor, Mr. Lehner, the Turkey Advisor. But we already knew that! By this time we were finished with the football concessions where our class cooked and served all the food and then split the money with the seniors who were less than present. After several more successful fund raisers we approached Winter Carnival. We were delighted to welcome a new member of the class, Murphina Easy, who easily won the Miss Snowflake contest for us! On to the Prom, "Enchantment Under the Sea," where we organized a wonderful evening dedicated to the seniors at Mechanics Hall. After a successful Class Day, Prom, and Graduation hosted by our class, we bid the Class of 98 farewell as we officially took charge as the owners of the school. Something all other classes already unofficially knew!

Senior Year! Under the leadership of Butthead, Namone, Sophy and Rico, we began this year with a great feeling of unity as a class than ever before. More than half of us joined our advisor, Mr. Lehner, in the senior experience by taking Physics. Here, it was possible to keep informed of all the pending plans. We quickly decided that we should have a very special class trip and decided that the best of the best go to Disney's Grad Nite, so plans were made to attend. About seventy percent of the class participated in an all night celebration in Magic Kingdom and then two more days at Disney's parks. There wasn't much sleep, but there was a whole lot of fun and food.

The traditional Halloween celebration brought strong competition from the new freshmen in the penny wars. Of course, they really had no idea who they were dealing with as we again won for the third consecutive time since its inception. With a record 252 pounds in the bucket and at least 100 in reserve in the stands, we easily defeated all other classes. We alone had almost as many pennies as all other classes combined. We again won the hall wars, proving that the other classes did not, indeed, have any idea who they were dealing with.

We continued to lead the school in every event and had a clen sweep of all competitions during the Thanksgiving rally and again confirmed Mr. Lehner as the Turkey Advisor. We sent him home with four trophies for his mantle as we completed our fourth year with clean and honest fun. We became the first senior class in along time to take the "high road" for our skit and easily won despite having microphone trouble. Who will ever forget the newspaper reading when other skits became lame?

High Spirits

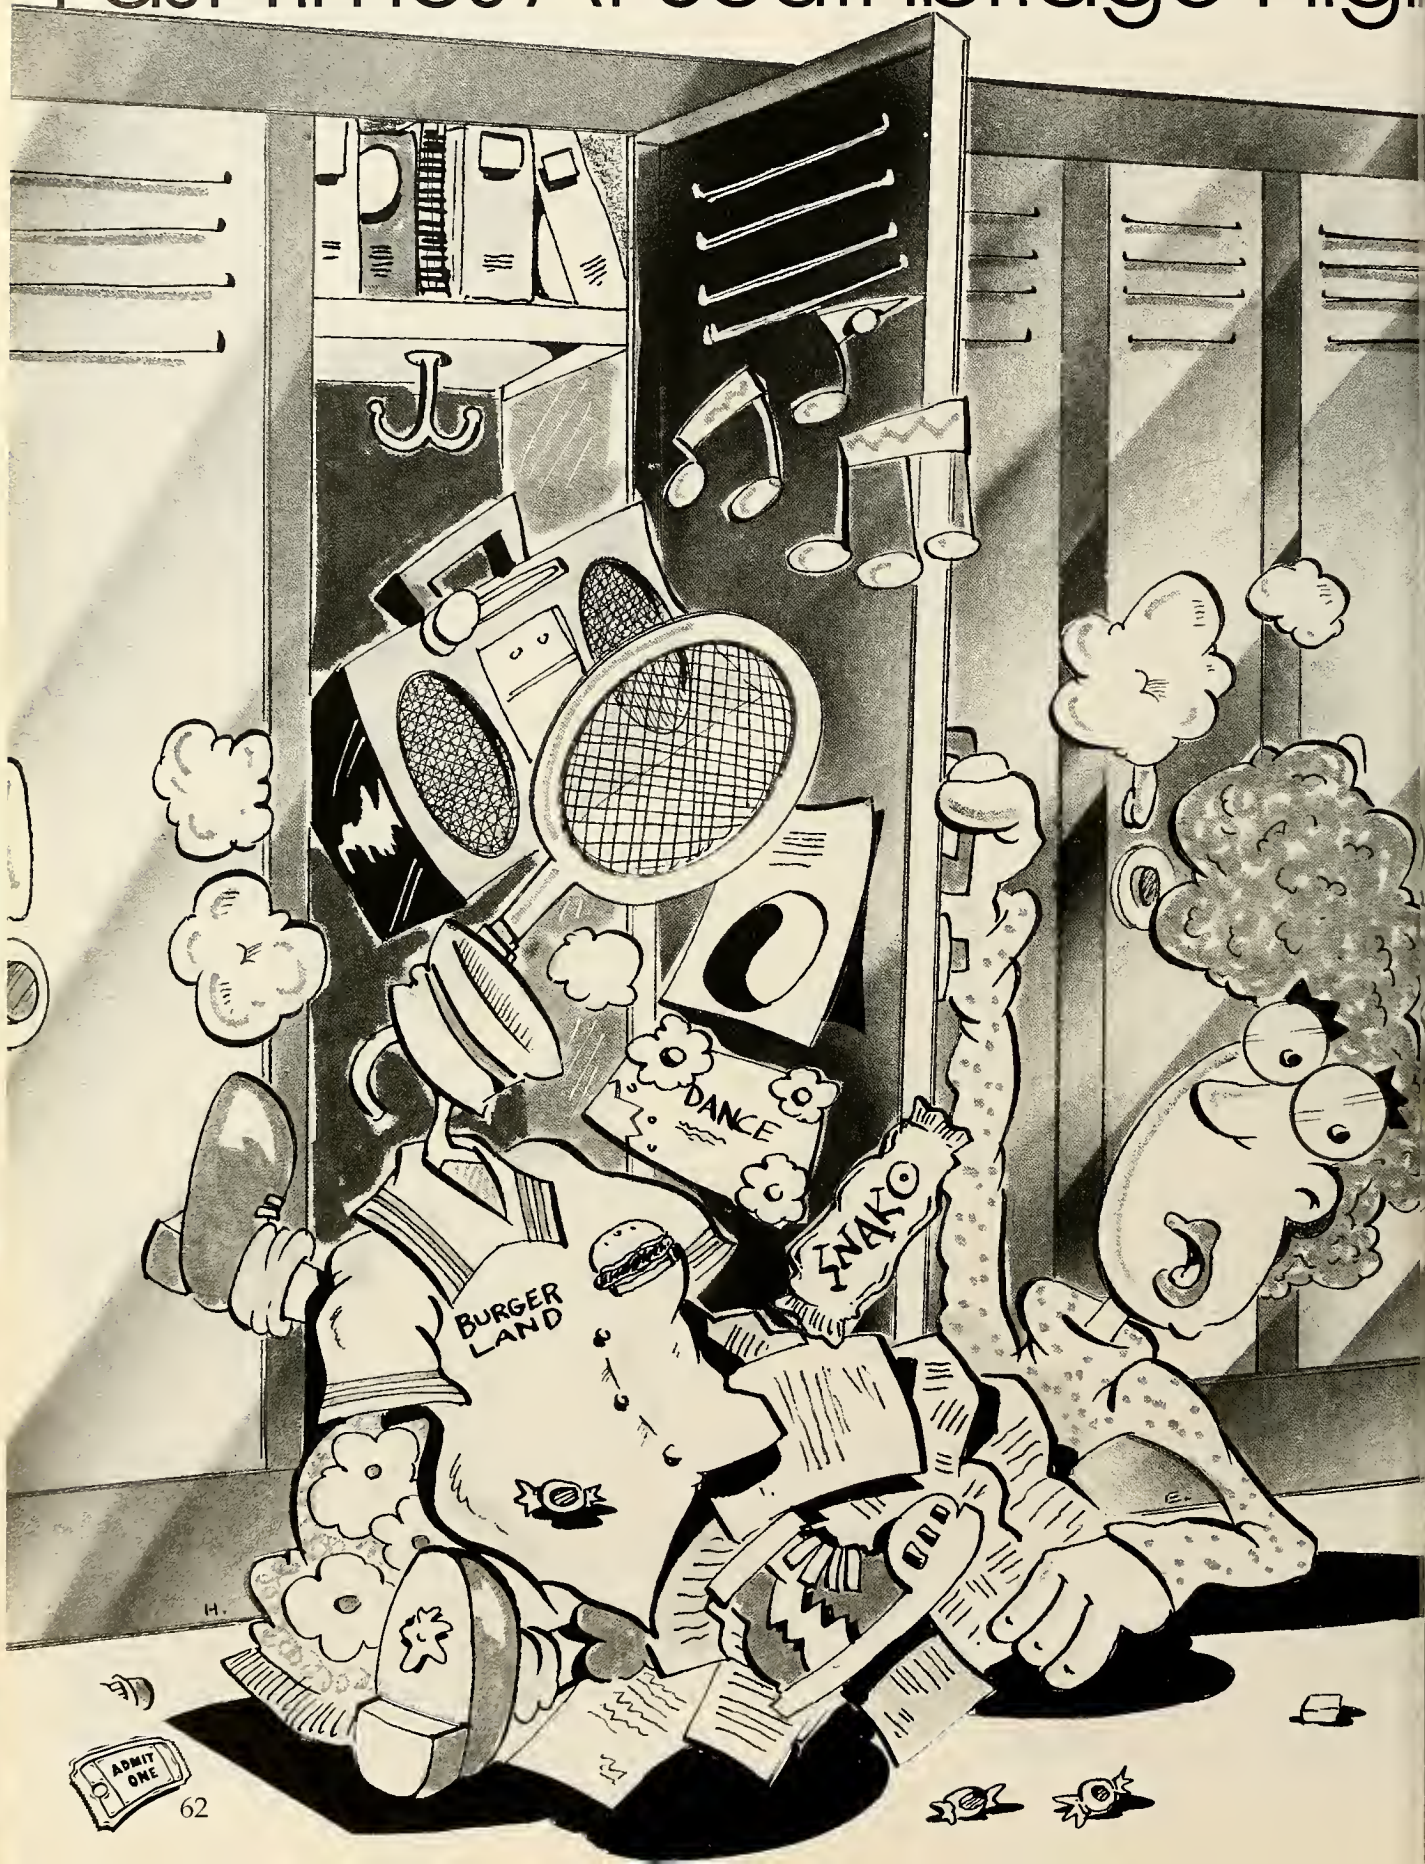

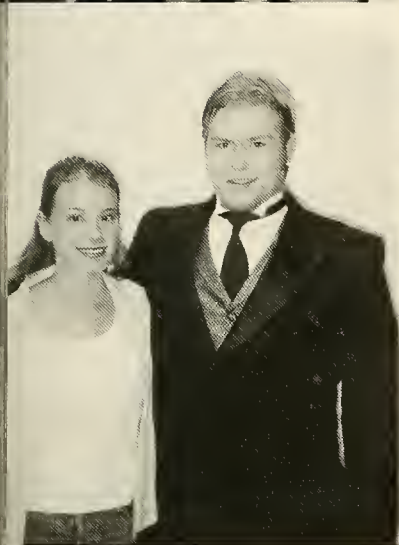

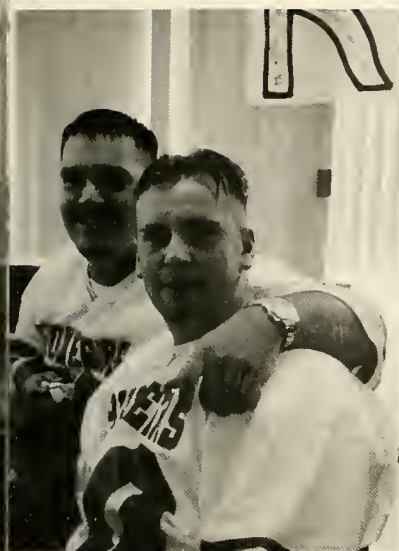

Thanksgiving Day at Southbridge High is more than turkey and potatoes. In fact, there are many contests that go along with the traditional feast. To begin the shortened week, there is paint night where no one leaves dry. On Wednesday, we have our annual Thanksgiving Day rally and get hyped up for the big game.

Mardi Gras Madness

Sleepless In Southbridge

On Thursday, November 26th, SHS held its annual Thanksgiving event. All in attendance were in high spirits and enjoyed themselves. The theme was "Midnight Magic" and was put on by the Student Council. It was an eventful evening; a wonderful way to end the week.

Organization

Katrina and Dario pose for a quick shot.

DUNKIN DONUTS
Southbridge

To my Class:

It has indeed been an honor to accompany you on your journey through high school. The years we spent together will remain with me always and I will miss each and every one of you. As you know, as of this writing, I have no children of my own. I would like to thank you and your parents for allowing me to share in your upbringing as I could not be more proud of so many of you if you were my own. I will reflect after you are gone of so much of the life we have shared together. What immediately comes to mind are all the flights we have had in the airplane, the soaking car washes, all the painting on the Tuesday before Thanksgiving, the way you all came together as one and the energy you displayed in rehearsal for the skit senior year, chasing meteors in the rain in the wee hours of the morning, searching for the space shuttle in the eastern sky, the construction and dismantling of the dunk tank at family fun day, our morning meetings and the bonding and style you displayed during them, all the success during class competitions at rallies and the dignified way you chose to conduct yourselves, the magic you created during Halloween decorating, the dedication and help provided at concessions, our pizza parties during paint night and the eating challenges conducted, the elegance of your prom and the Cinderella story so many of you brought to life during the evening, the affection with which L-Train and Lane-dog were created and used, the cooperation when the fun needed to stop and class needed to begin, your enthusiasm and dancing during the senior dinner cruise, your excitement, stamina, and drive at Disney World, and, most of all, watching all of you become the finest young adults during the final times of our experience together in high school. I am so completely impressed with all of you.

Please promise that graduation will not be a good bye, but simply a change in a relationship that will hopefully continue throughout our lives. My life will always welcome you to be in it. I remain ready to help in any way possible and sincerely wish all of you, all the best life can offer. You have earned it!

With all my love and best wishes,

Your Advisor, Ray Lehner

"He who studies and works hard succeeds in life"

We are very proud to have such wonderful children that have succeeded in some ways such as being excellent students, good athletes, always willing to participate in school activities and holding down a job. We wish you both the best of luck with your future goals and we hope that one day you'll be as proud of your children as we are proud of you.

MAY GOD BLESS YOU BOTH.

LOVE ALWAYS
MOM & DAD

Dear Matt & Steve,

It's hard to believe that all these years have passed. We are so proud of both of you. We've enjoyed watching you grow and mature. First, we tried to give you roots and now it's time to give you wings.

Remember:

"All that you send into the lives of others comes back into your own."

Adam,

You truly are the greatest son any parents could ask for.
You have given us true joy watching you grow through the years.
We are so proud of you. Wherever you go, or whatever life brings your way, we know that you will succeed.

Much Love,
Mom, Dad & Kara

Peter,

It seems like just yesterday you were a little boy bursting with curiosity and glowing with promise.

But now you are grown with many accomplishments to look back on and a whole world of exciting possibilities to look forward to.

Our wish for you is to achieve all the success and happiness you so well deserve...

Congratulations, you have made us very proud !

Love,
Mom, Dad, Brian & Memere

Alisa,

The Lord blessed with you to love and cherish. Every day we still give thanks to the Lord for you.

We pray that the Lord bless and watch over you. That all your dreams come true. That successes and happiness follow you in all that you do. Remember your faith in God, the love of your family, and true friends. Because they are, and should be, the foundation of your support.

We love you and are very proud of you.

Love

Dad

P.S. Annie didn't do this, you did and your one smooth cookie.

A pretty young girl born in Italy 18 years ago, came to Southbridge for her senior year of high school.

Elisa, we are so proud of you! Thank you for sharing this year with all of us. A wonderful year ends here, but not in our memories. Your warm smile, wonderful laughter and clowning ways will be surely missed. As your American Host Family, we wish you love and peace on your journey through life.

Love Always and Forever,
Bob and Diana

Our best wishes to our little boy, who is not so little any more!
We want to remind you that we love you very much and that we are very proud of you and all you have accomplished.
May God bless you always and may all your plans and dreams come to reality.

¡Te queremos mucho!

Dad, Mom, Marcos and Christina
Brandy, too!!

Lauren,

When a child is born, family and friends have all kinds of expectations for that child. You have lived up to all those expectations and more. You've grown into a beautiful young woman, both inside and out. We want you to know how much we love you and how proud we are of you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Lisa

CUT!

That's a rap!

Colophon

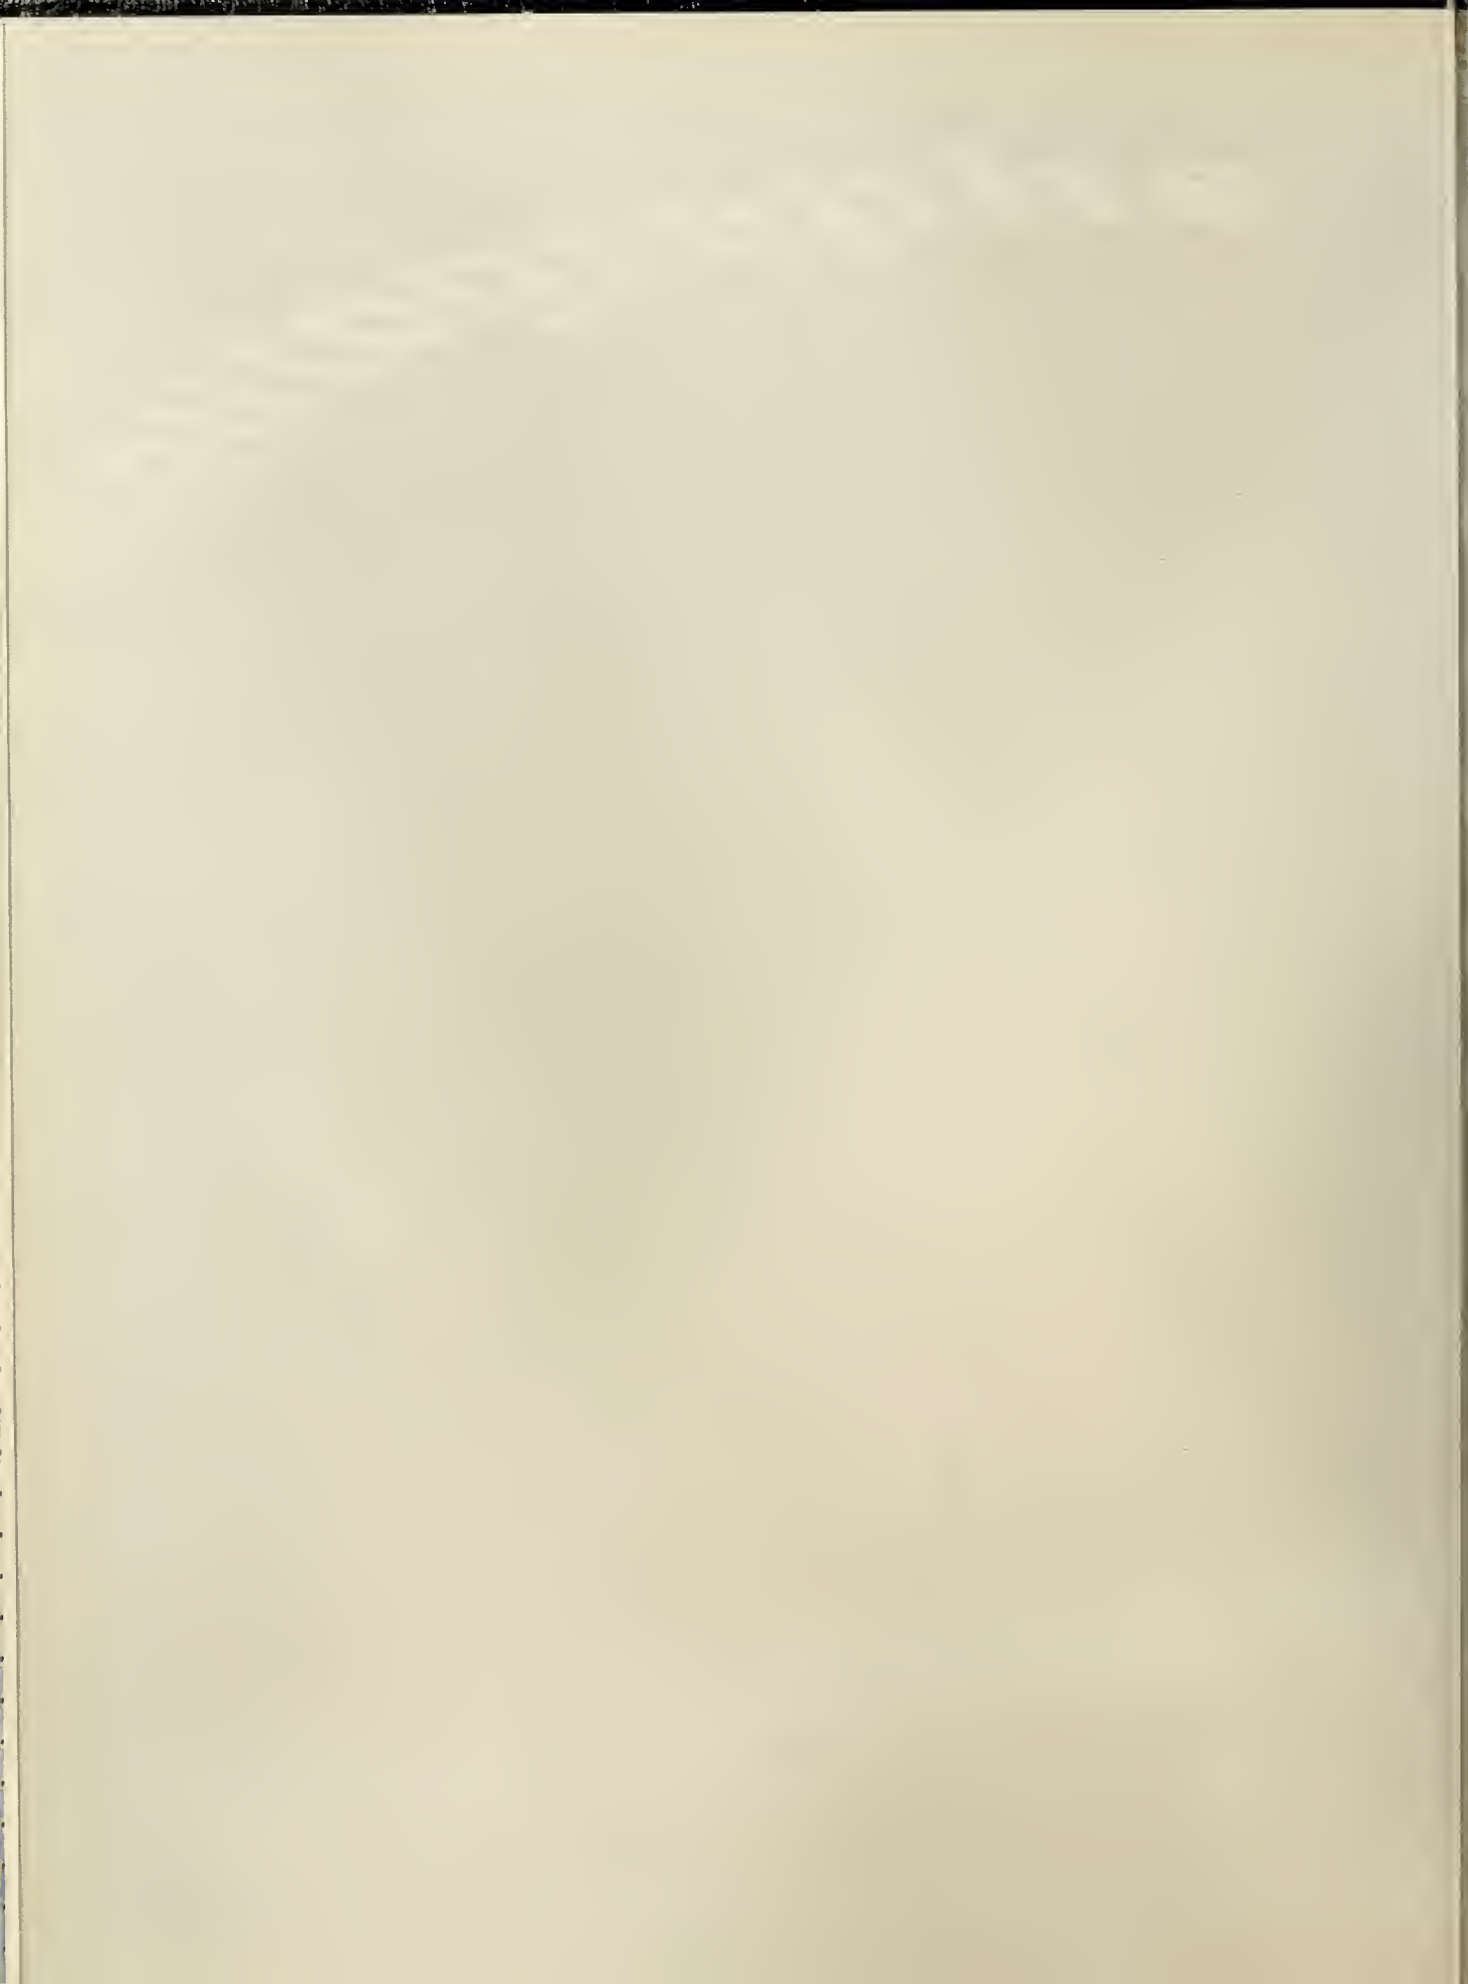

It's ShowTime, volume 37 of the Musket, was published by the fifteen member staff of the Southbridge High School Yearbook Committee. 230 copies were printed by Jostens Printing and Publishing of Topeka, Kansas with Mr. Matthew Fenn as the area representative. The 144 pages of the 1999 edition were printed on recycled paper. The cover is a Lithograph designed by Jostens. The Southbridge High School Graphics department designed the advertisement pages. The principal designers were Mr. John Soldani, Kaitlyn Spinelli, Julie Jenkins, and Karen Gendreau. Village Photo, Studio One, Southbridge Photo, and Les Gardner took senior portraits; Life Touch Studios took underclassmen portraits. The principal Photography Company was Village Photo. The cost of the yearbook was $35, and with the addition of name stamping, $40. Work on It's ShowTime began in June 1998 and lasted through June 1999.
